San Francisco General Hospital Foundation hosts Hearts in SF fundraiser at Oracle Park

An evening of celebration in support of vital mental health programming at Zuckerberg San Francisco General

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2020 • 5:30 P.M.

WHAT:

Hearts in SF is a vibrant celebration held on the field of Oracle Park to benefit the San Francisco General Hospital Foundation (the Foundation). Presented by the Foundation, event honorary chair Lisa Stone Pritzker, and co-chairs Schuyler Hudak, Lionel C. Johnson, and Andrew McCollum, Hearts in SF celebrates the work Zuckerberg San Francisco General does every day. The annual fundraiser will be a night of hope focused on the urgent need for community mental and behavioral healthcare solutions. Three Leaders with Heart Awards will be awarded during the program, which recognize extraordinary community leaders who exemplify the compassion and commitment of the Foundation and ZSFG – caring for all San Franciscans. Recipients: Hearts in SF will feature interactive art installations, inspiring remarks, live music from DJ ThatGirl and Mustache Harbor, the 2020 series of the iconic “Hearts in San Francisco” public art project sculptures, and more.

This year’s Leaders with Heart Award recipients are:

- ZSFG Social Medicine team
- Dr. Mark Leary, Deputy Director of the Department of Psychiatry at ZSFG
- Bernard Tyson, CEO of Kaiser Permanente and longtime supporter of ZSFG and the Foundation
